

The 54th TECHNICAL PROGRAM: four (4) papers on Friday August 20th; following a break (from 2:30 to 3:00 pm) in HYDROLOGY DAYS 1999. Presentation in the same room as Hydrology Days (this will be in the GLOVER Bldg. just across the plaza from the Student Center). BREAKS in Room 217 Student Center; PRESENTATIONS in Room 130 GLOVER Bldg.; No Host Lunch Room 165 Student Center.

RMHRC Session chair: Marshall FLUG, Midcontinent Ecological Science Center, USGS. Fort Collins.

3:00 pm Kenneth R. WRIGHT and Lynnette F. SCHAPER. Wright Water Engineers. Denver, Colorado. "Mesa Verde National Park Paleohydrology of Mummy Lake Site 5MV833".

3:30 pm James MONTESI. Midcontinent Ecological Science Center, USGS. Fort Collins, CO. "Development and Testing of a Method for Sampling Interstitial Waters in Gravel-bed Rivers."

4:00 pm Valentina V. VAVILOVA and William M. LEWIS, Jr. University of Colorado. Boulder, CO. "Spatial Variation of Suspended Algae and Their Relationship With Attached Algae in Colorado Mountain Streams."

4:30 pm Verne R. SCHNEIDER, Jeff PHILLIPS, and Mark E. SMITH. Water Resources Division. USGS. Reston, VA. "An evaluation of the large floods caused by Hurricane Mitch in Central America."

